Who changed this?

When a transaction was edited and you need to keep track of its history, it may be difficult to achieve without a transaction record.

Change Log

Change Log allows users to keep track of all the history record of a transaction and the user that have amended it.

SAP Business One's Tools> Change Log captures a list of changes to the particular transaction.

You may view it's changes done in summary and details comparison by clicking on differences as well.